

Xmas Furs Much Under Other Stores' Prices

The primary point in Fur selling at this store is to give the most for the least. Strong head lines won't make our Furs any better than other's Furs—you'll have to see them to appreciate the difference.

In quoting prices below we haven't inflated values (which is customary by some houses), but have told truthfully of their real worth—their present valuation at the Thalhimers store. It's mighty easy for some houses to misrepresent in telling of Furs—just as easy as it is hard for them to find Fur wanters.

We want Xmas buyers to visit our Fur section on Monday and Tuesday, and to invest now while the stock is large—many times larger than any other showing hereabouts, and not a price tag but what forms a fascinating Fur bargain.

For Monday and Tuesday:

THE FIRST BARACA CLASS ORGANIZED IN THE SOUTH

The Simms Class, Tabernacle Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., December 21.—No movement in Raleigh and probably none in North Carolina, has developed and grown so phenomenally as that of Baraca classes. In connection with the Sunday schools of the Baptist, Methodist, Christian and other denominations. The first Baraca class in the South was organized in connection with the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school in Raleigh six years ago, under the leadership of Rev. S. N. Simms, of Charlotte, and a number of other in Wilmington, Salisbury, Tarboro, Asheville, Elizabeth City, Scotland Neck, Rocky Mount, Durham, Selma and Wake Forest. All these classes are in close affiliation with the World-Wide Baraca, of which Marshal A. Hudson, of Syracuse, N. Y., is president. The total membership in the United States being a half million men, with the organization having also turn footings in Canada, England and other foreign countries. No national platform is "Young Men Archildren." News comes to Vice-President Simms that many classes throughout the country are moving in this direction.

The Simms Baraca class of Tabernacle Baptist Church, the first formed in the South, has the distinction of having inaugurated a movement for Baraca classes to undertake the support of one or more orphans in addition to carrying forward other work to which all Baracas are pledged. The Simms class now has two adopted

Newport News Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, December 21.—At Old Point this week everything has been dull after the numerous brilliant social events which marked the week of farewell to the Atlantic fleet. The usual Wednesday evening hop was given at the Chamberlin and was attended by the army officers from the fort, a few naval officers stationed here and local society folk, but the gold-laced officers of the battleships were sadly missed.

The Fortnight Euchre Club was entertained Wednesday evening at How Warwick by the young men of the club. Among those present were Miss Mary Catlin, of Richmond; Miss Alma Barham, of Norfolk; Miss Chittie, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Fulwider, of Roanoke; Misses Lucille Cooper, Agnes Epps, Adelaide Lapsley, Ethel Cottrell, Nannie Reynolds, Blanche Webb, Claudia Perkins and Mrs. Louis Lear; Messrs. Louis Lear, Thomas Reynolds, James Reynolds, William Shumate, Charles C. Epps, Maurice Jacquelin, Baptist, Louis A. McMurren, W. Perry Epps, Stribling Ballard, Latane Gregory and Howard Bowen.

Norman Taylor has gone to Appomattox to spend the Christmas holidays.

Mr. John VanRyn, formerly of this city, has been transferred from the Holland-American Line office at Philadelphia to the local office of that company. Mr. and Mrs. VanRyn have returned to the city to make their home again.

Mrs. John Humphries is the guest of her parents in Washington.

Miss Grace Wilbert, of Washington, is here to spend the holidays with relatives in this city.

Mrs. J. E. Cook, of Lee Hall, has returned home after a visit to relatives in this city.

Mr. Harry N. Jones, who is attending the Episcopal High School at Alexandria, is at home to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jones, on West Avenue.

Mr. J. F. Donnellville has returned to his home at Morrison, after a visit to relatives here.

Miss Mary Gary entertained a number of friends Friday evening at her home in East End.

Miss Emily Turner, of Richmond, has returned home after a visit to her cousin, the Misses Turner, on West Avenue.

Miss Katherine Geiger has returned home after spending a week in Norfolk.

Mr. James E. Abbe, Jr., has returned home after a visit to relatives in Tennessee and Alabama.

Mr. John Coleman, who has been spending a few weeks at Hot Springs, Va., has returned home.

Mrs. J. T. Garrow and her daughter, Miss Georgia, of Denbigh, have returned home after a visit to friends and relatives here.

Notes From Stripling Springs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STRIPLING SPRINGS, VA., December 21.—Snow of considerable depth now covers the ground here and wintry weather prevails.

Mrs. Rachel Cook, of near Stripling, is much complaining at this time.

Mr. J. N. Perry, of Stripling, is improving, having been sick for a few weeks.

Little James, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Newman, was right badly burned by stepping against the stove last Saturday.

Mr. Mike O'Connell, a familiar figure at Stripling, was a caller at this place this week.

Miss Lilla Horn expects to leave soon for "Harmon," W. Va.
